'Modi's reign badly failed to oppress Kashmir's freedom voice:' JKSM Chairman

Daily Parliament Times, October 14 2021

Chairman of Jammu and Kashmir Salvation Movement (JKSM), Altaf Ahmed Bhat while talking to media in Islamabad, said that "the Indian occupational force's brutal target killing of the youth in different fake encounters across Kashmir," will not deter Kashmiris right to self-determination.

He further noted that in another pretext to continue their oppression, the "occupational forces" are leaving no stone unturned to subdue the freedom-loving people of "occupied Kashmir". The recent targeted killing, arbitrary arrest and putting them behind bars outside Kashmir will never deter them from their birthright of freedom as per the United Nations (UN) resolutions.

He further stressed that Kashmiris' steadfastness and their commitment to the freedom movement showed their great resilience and bravery against "Indian state terrorism". He emphasised that the present government of India has completely failed to suppress the freedom sentiments and resistance of the people, despite using all sorts of "oppression and suppression."

'If the government opts for a third option on the Kashmir issue, it will be sent back to home'

Editorial, Jasarat, October 14 2021

In response to the question raised by Jasarat newspaper whether "Prime Minister is talking of the third option in Kashmir under the US pressure?" Many of Pakistan's leading political, legal and religious scholars said that if the government goes for the "third option" on the Kashmir issue, it will be packed off. The only acceptable solution for Pakistan is the implementation of the United Nations (UN) resolution on Kashmir. Kashmiris have to decide whether they will stay with Pakistan or India. China can also become a party. Imran Khan has no experience in diplomacy. Azeem Chaudhry, former advocate general of Balochistan, said that at present there are three parties to Kashmir issue – India, Pakistan and Kashmiri people. So "the Kashmiri people have to decide through an independent referendum, whether to go with India or Pakistan." This is written in the UN resolutions. If any other option is discussed then China can also become a party.

Dr. Salahuddin Mengal said that Prime Minister Imran Khan has played cricket all his life and he has no experience in diplomacy, economy and running the government. As far as the third option is concerned, Kashmir has always been under United States (US) influence. This influence continues however it does not mean that Pakistan will change the basis of its foreign policy. Analyst, Mazhar Tufail said that the government of Pakistan has always tried to include the people of "occupied Kashmir" so that the Kashmiri people will get their full constitutional rights. But unfortunately, the ugly manner in which the present government of Pakistan has presented the case of Kashmir at the international level shows that Imran Khan has not only disappointed the Kashmiri people but in fact it has facilitated India's plans for Kashmir. Undoubtedly, India's diplomacy on the Kashmir issue has been invaluable. That is why even after the abolition of the constitutional status of 'occupied' Kashmir, India has presented itself as an oppressed country to the international community.

Shortly after the triumphant return of Prime Minister (PM) Imran Khan from his visit to the US, the Indian government ended the constitutional status of "occupied Kashmir" and to some extent succeeded in shifting the balance of power in its favour. Mentioning the eternal sacrifices of the late Dr. Abdul Qadeer Khan, he said that, it is because of him that Pakistan has earned the honor of being the world's first Muslim nuclear power. Due to Pakistan's nuclear status India has not been able to fulfill its intentions even after removing the constitutional status of 'Occupied' Kashmir. He argued, Pakistan's diplomacy has failed. Not many Islamic countries, including Saudi Arabia, have supported our position. Member of political committee of Jamaat-e-Islami Pakistan, Mian Muhammad Ramzan said that the pretense of third option is a joint project of India and US which Imran Khan is unable to understand due to his inexperience and the nation will never accept it.
